St. Edward the Confessor School, Syosset is searching for a principal for the 2024-2025 school year. St. Edward the Confessor School ministers an early childhood program through eighth grade education. The school is part of a growing, dynamic, and multicultural Church in northeastern Nassau County.

The mission of the principal is to work in conjunction and collaboration with the pastor and pastoral team (Teachers) in the educational, moral, cultural, and spiritual development of the children entrusted to us.

This candidate should have solid interpersonal skills, proven leadership and motivational aptitude, experience in and/or knowledge of cultural diversity, commitment to Catholic education and to making future saints. The candidate will be involved in leading all areas of school life. This includes, but is not limited to development, supervising, and evaluating staff, providing resources for staff growth, parent involvement and communication as well as being a team player in the overall parish mission of St. Edward the Confessor. Being bilingual, though not a necessity, is a wonderful asset.

Providing Catholic education is part of the great mission of St. Edward the Confessor. We look forward to this new moment in our family history and desire a candidate who is excited about the Catholic mission being lived out and growing in the Church, school, and families.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. A practicing Roman Catholic with a commitment to the development of a Christian spirit and a community of faith within a school.
2. Master's Degree or higher.
3. New York State Certification, Pending or In-Process as a School District Leader or School Building Leader.
4. Basic Theology Certification or equivalent.
5. The ability to articulate a philosophy of Catholic education as contained in papal teaching, the documents of Vatican II, and more recent official Church documents.
6. The successful candidate must faithfully always represent the teachings of the Church in their entirety.
7. Preferred minimum of ten years of teaching experience in a Catholic school, with good professional evaluations. Such experience should be sufficiently broad to provide an understanding of the N-8 structure and the potential to function as educational leader in an elementary school.
8. A recommended minimum of 2 years leadership experience.
9. The successful candidate will work closely with parents to build a strong faith community based on mutual respect and a focus on dramatic missionary growth.
10. Leadership ability evidenced by performance in past or present educational assignments. Leadership, for a principal, means that the candidate demonstrates communication and public relations skills and has the capacity, enthusiasm,
